By a report in another column, it will be observed that the annual meeting of the GLOUCESTER FRESH FISH COMPANY.

Company took place last evening. It was a representative gathering of Gloucester's business men, comprising many vocations, and all desirous of keeping alive this branch of industry, as proven by the unanimous vote given.

There is but one opinion relative to the benefits which such a branch of industry can prove to this community, and while there may be differences of opinion on some of the minor matters, and the regular friction which accompanies most any business enterprise, yet the fact stands clear that Gloucester should market every possible pound of her catch of fish here at the home port. The company have been handicapped in getting a sufficient supply of fish to meet the demand at the time when trade was brisk; but the most determined efforts will be made the coming year to overcome all obstacles and put this company in the very best position. What is now required is for the home vessels to supply the company with stock in trade and the management will keep it moving.

Good Trip.

Sch. Thalia, Capt. George W. Tufts, arrived from a shacking trip this morning, with a fine trip of 75,000 fresh cod, and 20,000 salt cod. She escaped the gale of September 13, putting into Boothbay where she weathered it safely. Since that time the weather has been stormy but the only damage sustained was the carrying away of the maintopmast.

Halibut Fares.

Two halibut fares are in this morning, sch. Lelia E. Norwood, Capt. Alfred Johnson, having 22,000 pounds, besides some cod, and sch. Alva, Capt. Joachin Murray, having 17,000 pounds and considerable cod. Both skippers report good weather, excepting the fog during the trip, and the only vessel spoken was the Oregon, on Grand Bank, by Capt. Johnson.

The fare of halibut of sch. Alva, sold to the Atlantic Halibut Co. for 12 cents per pound for white and 9 1-2 cents for gray, and the fare of sch. Lelia E. Norwood to the New England Fish Co., at the same price.
